

What I should already know: That the United Kingdom (UK) is made up of four smaller countries The countries and capitals of the UK The names and locations of the world's continents and oceans That the UK is in the continent of Europe That the UK is no longer part of the political group called the European Union	Key skills used/ practised: Map reading: locating countries (capitalised) and capital cities (bold) in a school atlas and on a simple map of Europe Researching facts about (and traditions of) selected European countries using laptops/ ipads/ atlases Producing a quiz/ fact file/ short speech on chosen country
By the end of this unit I will know these main facts: The names, locations and capital cities of the most populous countries in the continent of Europe: The United Kingdom (London) Ireland (Dublin) France (Paris) Germany (Berlin) Spain (Madrid) Italy (Rome) Russia (Moscow)	Key Vocabulary: Europe European Continental British Irish French German Spanish Italian Russian population populous capital government

Map/ photos of area:

Start/ end of Unit Quiz:

	Start of unit	End of Unit		Start of unit	End of Unit
1. UK stands for the United Kingdom			6. The capital city of France is:
True			a) Penzance
False			b) Philadelphia
2. The UK is in the continent of:			c) Paris
a) Antarctica			d) Pretoria
b) North America			7. Colour the countries in on the map below:
c) Europe			Ireland = blue
d) Africa			France = red
3. Tick the countries below that are considered to be in the continent of Europe:			Italy = green
a) Russia			Germany = yellow
b) USA			Russia = black
c) France			8. Match each with its capital city by writing the city's number next to one of the dots ● on the map
d) Ireland
e) Italy			Total marks out of 15
f) Mexico
4. Germany is in Europe:
True
False
5. The capital city of Ireland is:
a) Dunedin
b) Dubrovnik
c) Dundee
d) Dublin

Rome = 1

Moscow = 2

Paris = 3

Dublin = 4